Report: Junoon School Visit

School: Jeevoday Special School for Mentally Handicapped Students

Introduction:

On September 30, 2024, the NSS team visited Jeevoday School, a Christian institution founded by Archbishop Leobard D'Souza. The school educates 300 special-needs students under Principal Miss Thresiamma Joseph (Sister Tessily) and a dedicated staff of 65. The Junoon event aimed to provide students with a fun, interactive day filled with educational and recreational activities.

Event Highlights:

The event featured various activities such as musical chairs, passing the ball, and drawing, allowing the students to express their creativity and have fun. Educational activities included lessons on body parts, telling time, traffic signals, and hygiene, showed them Presentations, making the day both engaging and informative.

A dance and jamming session filled the day with music and joy, with volunteers and students dancing together. School in return gave us the Appreciation letter.

Conclusion:

The Junoon School Visit was a heartwarming success, fostering a strong connection between the NSS volunteers and the students of Jeevoday School. The event promoted inclusion and joy, leaving both students and staff grateful. The day ended with card and cookie distribution, and the school extended their blessings, hoping for future visits.
